Coca Cola

Q: Are you satisfied with the company you are placed in or you expected a better company?

A: I am happy and satisfied with the company I am placed in. I got more than my expectations.

Q: Were there any challenges that you faced in the beginning of the placement season?

A: In the beginning I was neither prepared for the core nor for the software companies. But after my selection in Mu Sigma, I gained a lot of confidence.

Q: Were you rejected by any other company? If yes, what could be the possible reasons?

A: I was rejected in the final (HR) round of Oracle Financial Services Software. My answers were not up to their expectations and I was at fault as I openly criticized few things.

Q: How many levels were there in the selections procedure of this company?

A: Shortlisting based on CV

Group Discussion

Interview (Tech + HR)

Q: What preparations did you make to get through the written rounds?

A: There wasn't any written round.

Q: What preparations did you make to get through the GD rounds?

A: I didn't do any special preparation for GD. Just went through the news once.

Q: What preparations did you make to get through the Interview rounds?

A: I got my mind ready for the HR questions and discussed some of the technical concepts with my friends. The interview round was overall easy with most of the questions coming from HR side.

Q: Any tips or suggestions for the juniors?

A: Target the type of company and job profiles you want and start preparing accordingly. And be confident with whatever you say in GD or PI. A major part of the decision depends on the personality of the candidate.

Q: Can you briefly explain your overall experience of the placement season?

A: This time the placement scenario is much better. Numerous companies providing various job profiles have opened up lots of possibilities for the present as well as the upcoming batches.
